

A close-up photograph of several metal skewers filled with chunks of meat and vegetables, grilling over a fire. The background is slightly blurred, showing more skewers and the flames of the grill.

BIODIVERSITY EDUCATION CENTER

SUMMER COOKING

CAMPS

GRILLING 101 FOR THE FAMILY

July 10-14 • 1PM-4PM

Americans love their barbecue! This class will explore the different styles of barbecuing using sauces and dry rubs. You'll learn new cooking methods and discover your favorite ingredients! There will be pork, beef, and chicken along with some awesome sides to sample. Who doesn't love some ribs or delicious brisket?

• AGES 7-14 •

Register online @ coppellactivities.com or at The CORE, 234 E. Parkway Blvd.

BACKPACKING AND CAMPING

August 7-11 • 9AM-12PM

Nothing is as satisfying as having great food while backpacking and camping. This program instructs and engages with hands-on activities. Campers will learn about different methods of food preparation and safety related to the outdoor experience. Outdoor themed meals will be prepared and devoured. Learn tricks and tips to set you as the chef above the rest of the pack.

• AGES 7-14 •

COPPELL
PARKS & RECREATION
People. Parks. Programs.

All camps are located at the Biodiversity Education Center, 367 Freeport Pkwy.